223 N Main – Jenkins reported that Helt has moved in a dumpster. He has been filling it with roofing materials and debris.

He said they had a meeting with Herb Hoover, the new owner of the old Edward Jones building, to discuss the issue of where the south wall butts up against his building. They decided that as Helt continues the demolition, he will attach roofing materials in place when necessary where the two buildings met. The wall of the building seems to be in good condition.

Helt is bringing in heavier equipment to continue the demolition. Jenkins stated that once the top story is completely down it should go pretty quick. They are still hauling out a lot of trash from the previous owner.

NEW BUSINESS * * * ***

There was no further business to come before the Board; Herbert made a motion to adjourn. Bostic seconded the motion. The meeting adjourned at 5:17 p.m.
